3. A Taste of Wales in London

Siop Fferm Glasfryn joined the True Taste Welsh Produce Market in London on Friday 26th February.

The True Taste Welsh Produce Market came back to London for the second year running to celebrate both St David's Day and the winners of the Wales, True Taste Awards which was held in Abergavenny in November.

Siop Fferm Glasfryn won the Farm Enterprise Award and was delighted to be invited to attend the Welsh Produce Market held in Golden Square, just off Regent Street.

“The response from Londoners was incredible - we completely sold out of our lamb and mint burgers within an hour. Visitors to our stand were particularly impressed that all our lamb and beef comes from animals raised on the farm. It was fantastic to be able to take a taste of Wales to London.” Said Jonathan Williams-Ellis, owner of Siop Fferm Glasfryn.

London residents and commuters flocked to the one-day event which was open from 11am – 7pm. The market also attracted the attention of several media film crews.

There were over 20 producers at this year's market including: The Patchwork Traditional Food Company, Black Mountains Smokery, The Pudding Compartment, Kid Me Not, South Caernarfon Creameries, Hawarden Farm Shop, Tropical Forest, Bachedlre Watermill, Clam's Cakes and the 2009/2010 True Taste Champion, Deiniol ap Dafydd from Blas ar Fwyd.

The Wales the True Taste Awards were founded in 2002 and are managed by the Welsh Assembly Government. The awards scheme recognizes and rewards quality and excellence in Welsh food and drink.

Siop Fferm Glasfryn is open seven days a week from 10am – 6pm and sells products to both trade and retail customers. As well as a wide range of cuts of meat, the shop, which employs two full time butchers, also sells a selection of homemade ready meals, burgers, sausages and Game (including pheasant, woodcock, duck, venison and rabbit). A fine selection of local cheeses, pates, chutneys, preserves and other locally sourced gourmet treats and everyday essentials are also available.
